ministry, agency, board, corporation or authority when similar goods or services are not available from other sources.

CO-OPERATIVE PURCHASING

The CPO may enter into arrangements with any government body, ministry, agency, group purchasing organization (GPO), board, corporation or authority on a co-operative or joint basis for the acquisition of goods or services where there are economic advantages in so doing that are in the best interests of the Board and the method of acquisition to be used is a public and competitive method.

The CPO shall submit any co-operative purchasing to the Board for approval if the budget is exceeded for the acquisition of the goods or services.

Please reference Appendix A for a list of all formal bids lead by the Waterloo Regional Police Service or where the Waterloo Regional Police Service participated.

Tariff Implications

The trade situation, the status of tariffs and the foreign exchange rate continue to be monitored both in terms of how it may impact our procurement, and budget implications. All awarded vendors included in this Q4 2025 report are Canadian based. On April 16, 2025, the United States Remission Order (2025) was put in place. The Order provides relief for goods imported into Canada by or on behalf of listed Canadian public or private entities in the public health, health care, public safety, and national security sectors for a six-month period from April 16 to October 15, 2025, and retroactively for goods imports since March 4, 2025. This remission order has been extended to December 31, 2025, and there is a pending request from the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACP) to extend it further. Remission can be claimed to waive the payment of tariffs at the time of importation, and importers may seek a refund for tariffs already paid. We continue to monitor and review potential future implications.

At this time the impact to the Operating Budget is not expected to be material in relation to the total budget due to the composition of the Operating Budget being over 90% staffing related. Areas that could be impacted once the interim tariff relief for Canadian law enforcement is lifted are ammunition, OC spray, fleet, firearms, facility construction and information technology. With the changing landscape we continue to monitor impacts on the 2026 financials and operations.

Data Licence Agreement With County of Essex for ESCO Onboarding of LaSalle Police Service Board of the Waterloo Regional

Police Service Board

FROM:

Information and Technology Branch
Legal Services and Risk
Management Branch

DATE:

Recommendation

That the Waterloo Regional Police Service Board enter into a Data License Agreement with the County of Essex to obtain mapping data required for onboarding the LaSalle Police Service as a client of the Emergency Services Cooperative Ontario (ESCO), in a form acceptable to Legal Services.

Report

In August 2025, the Board approved execution of a Third Party License Agreement with LaSalle Police Service Board (LaSalle) to access and use ESCO services as approved by the ESCO Management Committee. As part of the onboarding process for LaSalle, ESCO requires a license agreement with the County of Essex for use of its mapping data for creation of a Computer Aided Design (CAD) map for LaSalle.

The licence agreement grants WRPS the ability to ingest mapping data provided by County Essex. This data plays a critical role in facilitating the successful onboarding of LaSalle Police LaSalle as a new ESCO client. Furthermore, the mapping information will directly support the implementation of the CAD solution that LaSalle is acquiring, ensuring a seamless integration and enhanced operational efficiency.

The Data Licensing Agreement has been reviewed by Legal Services.

Inspector General of Policing Memorandum

TO: All Chiefs of Police and Commissioner Thomas Carrique, C.O.M.
Chairs, Police Service Boards

FROM: Ryan Teschner, Inspector General of Policing of Ontario

DATE: December 15, 2025

SUBJECT: Inspector General Memo #8: Public release of the first Decisions by the Inspector General of Policing with accompanying Findings
Reports

I write to inform you of an important development in the work of the Inspectorate of Policing (IoP). On Wednesday, December 17, the IoP will begin publicly releasing my Inspector General Decisions with accompanying Findings Reports. These Decisions and Findings Reports flow from the IoP's investigations into public complaints submitted to us under the Community Safety and Policing Act (CSPA). Publishing them is in keeping with our commitment to transparency, accountability and continuous improvement.

Two types of IG Decisions

Under the CSPA, the Inspector General is required to make Decisions and Findings Reports publicly available. These Decisions result from investigations into Section 106 matters, which address the conduct of police service board members, and Section 107 matters, which examine whether policing services are adequate and effective, comply with the law, and follow policies or procedures set by boards, the Minister, or Chiefs of Police.

Each investigation—whether into board member conduct under section 106 or service delivery under section 107—concludes with a Findings Report that sets out the evidence and analysis gathered by the IoP. Based on this report, the Inspector General issues a Decision confirming whether or not provincial policing laws and standards have been met. If a board member is found to have committed misconduct, the Inspector General can issue a formal reprimand, suspend the board member and remove the board member from their position. If a police service is found to be in non-compliance with Ontario's policing laws and standards, the Inspector General may issue Directions to address the gaps, and if those directions are not followed will Measures be imposed to ensure compliance.

Without reference to specific organizations or cases, early Decisions underscore sector-wide compliance requirements and expectations: boards must discharge governance mandates while not directing specific operations, and exercise caution in public communications; services should demonstrate risk-based response and strong dispatch/communication standards; the interpretation of specific requirements for the deployment of specialized equipment; and, professionalism in public engagement is essential.

Importance of an organizational process for Decision review and application

Moving forward, these Decisions and Findings Reports will be posted regularly as batches of complaint investigations are completed. As these Decisions are legally binding and will serve as precedent for future matters, I strongly encourage each police service and board to build in a process to ensure these Decisions are reviewed and, where necessary, integrated into your operations to avoid future compliance concerns and to improve overall performance. My goal is to support a culture where accountability and excellence go hand in hand.

I want to reiterate what I have consistently emphasized during our engagements with you over the past two years: this next step in the IoP's work is aimed at providing the policing sector with meaningful opportunities to learn from practical examples and to collectively strengthen performance standards. By sharing these Decisions openly, we aim to provide clarity on how standards are applied, highlight areas of strength, and identify opportunities for improvement in the sector. This transparency benefits everyone—police services, boards, and the communities we serve—by reinforcing trust and demonstrating that oversight is fair, evidence-based, and focused on strengthening police sector performance across Ontario.

Staying up to date on Decisions and contacting your Advisor

If you have any questions about how these Decisions can be used to support your work, please do not hesitate to contact your Policing Services Liaison Advisor. To stay informed about new Decisions and Findings Reports as they are published, we encourage you to subscribe to IoP news updates through our website: www.iopontario.ca.

Thank you for your continued partnership in building a policing system that is transparent, accountable, and responsive to the needs of Ontarians.

Sincerely,

Ryan Teschner

Recommendation

For information only.

Summary

On December 2, 2025, Statistics Canada released the annual "Homicide trends in Canada, 2024" report. Short- and long-term trends in homicide<sup>1</sup> are examined at the national, provincial/territorial, and census metropolitan area (CMA) levels. The report also explores characteristics of homicides committed in 2024, such as the methods used to commit homicides (including the use of firearms), whether the homicide was determined to be gang related or youth committed, and whether the victim was identified as Indigenous or racialized. This report summarizes some of the major trends identified at the national level, as well as some of the trends specific to the Kitchener-Cambridge-Waterloo CMA<sup>2</sup>.

In 2024, there were 788 homicides in Canada, eight fewer homicides than in 2023. This accounted for 0.1% of all police-reported violent Criminal Code offences nationally. By rate, this equates to 1.91 homicides per 100,000 population and a 4% decrease since 2023. This is the second consecutive year that the national homicide rate has been below 2 homicides per 100,000 population.

In Ontario, the 2024 homicide rate remained relatively unchanged at 1.75 per 100,000 population (see Figure 1) compared to 1.74 per 100,000 population in 2023. The Kitchener-Cambridge-Waterloo CMA reported 5 homicides in 2024, or 0.71 victims per 100,000 population. These numbers remain relatively unchanged from 2023 (5 victims; 0.74 victims per 100,000 population). The Kitchener-Cambridge-Waterloo CMA's homicide rate is below the national rate of 1.91 (see Figure 2), ranking 36th among all CMAs and 15th among provincial CMAs. Kitchener-Cambridge-Waterloo CMA's homicide rate has consistently remained below the national rate over the last decade (see Figure 3).

<sup>2</sup> The boundaries of the Kitchener-Cambridge-Waterloo CMA have been adjusted to be the same as the Region of Waterloo for the purposes of this Juristat. Please refer to Census Metropolitan Area Methodology for more details.

Firearms accounted for more than 36% of homicides in 2024. Handguns were the most frequently used firearm (56%), followed by rifles and shotguns (34%), and unspecified types of firearms (10%).

Gang-related homicides declined from 174 in 2023 to 152 in 2024. This corresponded to a gang-related homicide rate of 0.37 per 100,000 population and less than one-fifth (19%) of all homicides for 2024. For the first time since 2016, the national gang-related homicide rate dropped below 0.40 per 100,000 population.

The proportion of homicides associated with illegal drug trade activities have become less frequent (69% in 2023 to 53% in 2024) and the number of gang-related homicides involving a firearm decreased (132 in 2023 to 110 in 2024). Additionally, the proportion of accused involved in gang-related homicides decreased from 18% in 2023 to 14% in 2024.

Youth-accused homicides increased from 65 in 2023 to 72 in 2024. Similarly, the youth-accused homicide rate increased from 0.87 per 100,000 youths to 0.94 per 100,000 youths in this timeframe. In 2024, police reported 13 incidents involving multiple youths accused of homicide, five of which had three or more youths accused.

The number of Indigenous victims increased by 4% in 2024, representing a homicide rate of 10.84 per 100,000 population. Like previous years, they were overrepresented as homicide victims in 2024. Over one in four (26%) homicide victims were Indigenous, despite representing only 5% of Canada's population during this time. The homicide rate for Indigenous peoples was over eight times higher than that of non-Indigenous Canadians. Increases were most pronounced for Indigenous women, with the homicides rising from 50 in 2023 to 71 in 2024. Comparatively, homicides among Indigenous men increased from 144 to 152.

In 2024, 29% of homicide victims belonged to a racialized group. The homicide rate for racialized Canadians was lower than the rate for non-racialized Canadians; 1.72 per 100,000 for racialized individuals compared to 1.98 for non-racialized individuals. Among racialized homicide victims, the majority were Black (45%), South Asian (22%), and Arab (9%).

In 2024, 42% of individuals accused of homicide had a record of either having committed or having been accused of previous crimes against a person. This was a slightly lower rate than in 2023 (47%). The proportion of individuals charged with homicide that were under some form of justice system supervision (bail, remand, sentenced to custody, or on probation) was 32% in 2024.

There was a decrease in the proportion of homicide victims that were missing persons at the time of their death (5% in 2024 compared to 6% in 2023). Where the gender was known, 4% of both Indigenous men and women were previously reported as missing compared to 6% of non-Indigenous men and 5% of non-Indigenous women. Although there was an increase in the number of Indigenous women reported as homicide victims in 2024, the percentage of those who were previously reported as missing was 3.25 times lower than when the data was first collected in 2015.

In 2024, there was an increase in the number of homicide victims killed by a spouse or intimate partner (72 victims in 2023 compared to 100 victims in 2024). This represents approximately one in six homicide victims in 2024. Eight of the ten provinces experienced this increase. Like previous years, women disproportionately represent the victims of intimate partner homicide in 2024 (81%). The number of women who were victims of intimate partner homicide increased from 53 in 2023 to 81 in 2024; the number of men who were victims remained constant.

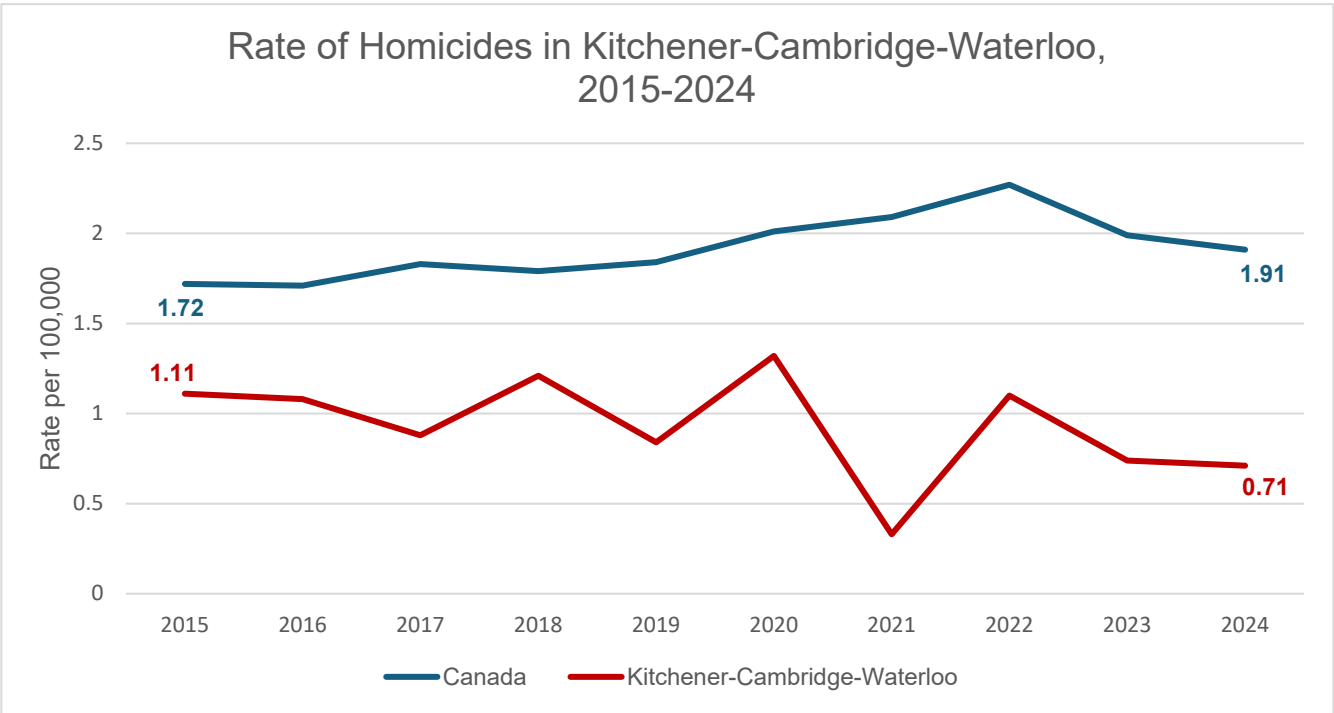

Figure 3. Homicide rate for the Kitchener-Cambridge-Waterloo CMA and Canada from 2015 to 2024. The Kitchener-Cambridge-Waterloo CMA’s rate peaked at 1.32 victims per 100,000 population in 2020. (Source: Statistics Canada, Table 35-10-0071-01).

1. Indigenous includes those identified by police as First Nations persons (either Status or non-Status), Métis, Inuit or as an Indigenous person but whose group is unknown.
2. In this infographic, the concept of racialized population is measured using the “visible minority” variable, which refers to whether or not a person belongs to one of the visible minority groups defined by the Employment Equity Act. In the Act, visible minorities are defined as “persons, other than Aboriginal peoples, who are non-Caucasian in race or non-white in colour.”
3. Spouse or intimate partner refers to a current or former spouse, common-law spouse or dating partner.

Homicide trends in Canada, 2024

Released at 8:30 a.m. Eastern time in The Daily, Tuesday, December 2, 2025

Police services reported 788 homicides across Canada in 2024, 8 fewer homicides than the previous year. In Canada, homicides—which include first-degree murder, second-degree murder, manslaughter and infanticide—account for about 0.1% of all police-reported violent crimes. The homicide rate is considered a key metric for assessing the state of violence, community safety and social welfare of a country. Domestic and international policy makers analyze the incidence of homicides to understand the extent of violence, identify trends and determine an appropriate response.

The national homicide rate decreased 4% in 2024, dropping from 1.99 to 1.91 homicides per 100,000 population. This is the second consecutive year when the homicide rate has been below 2 homicides per 100,000 population.

Varying trends in provincial homicide rates in 2024

In 2024, homicide rates decreased in four provinces, with the largest decline in Newfoundland and Labrador (-51%), followed by British Columbia (-27%), Alberta (-20%), and Quebec (-11%).

Conversely, the six remaining provinces saw increases. New Brunswick's homicide rate nearly doubled from 1.08 to 2.11 per 100,000 population, as the 18 homicide victims in 2024 were up from 9 in 2023. In 2024, eight of those victims died by shootings, which was twice the number in 2023.

Elsewhere, Prince Edward Island's homicide rate increased from 0.58 to 1.12 per 100,000 population (from one victim to two victims) in 2024. Nova Scotia's rate rose substantially, from 1.33 to 2.32 per 100,000 (from 14 to 25 victims). Nova Scotia recorded a notable increase in homicides related to illegal drug trade activities in 2024 (7), up from 2 in the previous year. For the first time in four years, Nova Scotia also had three incidents involving multiple homicide victims. Farther west, Manitoba recorded a 22% increase in its homicide rate, while Saskatchewan's rate grew by 7%, and Ontario's remained largely unchanged at 1.75 per 100,000.

Reflecting the broader downward trend in the national homicide rate, 22 of the 42 census metropolitan areas (CMAs) saw reductions in their homicide rates in 2024, with the most substantial decrease being recorded in Moncton (-81%). However, among the three largest CMAs (Toronto, Montréal and Vancouver), only Vancouver experienced a drop. Thunder Bay recorded Canada's highest homicide rate in 2024, rising from 5.41 to 6.08 per 100,000, followed by Chilliwack (4.75) and Winnipeg (4.66).

Handguns are the primary weapon in more than half of firearm-related homicides

Consistent with recent trends, firearms were used in more than one in three homicides (36%) in 2024. Among the 287 firearm-related homicides, handguns were the most common firearm used (56%), followed by rifles and shotguns (34%). The remaining cases involved unspecified types of firearms (e.g., where the exact firing mechanism is unknown).

Overall decreases in gang-related homicide trends

Gang-related homicides (152 homicides, or 0.37 homicides per 100,000 population) dropped in 2024, down from 174 in 2023, making up less than one-fifth (19%) of all homicides. For the first time since 2016, Canada's gang-related homicide rate dropped below 0.40 per 100,000 population.

A recent analysis revealed several decreases in gang-related homicide trends in 2024. First, homicides associated with illegal drug trade activities (e.g., possession and trafficking) have become less frequent, dropping from 120 homicides in 2023 (69% of all gang-related homicides) to 80 homicides in 2024 (53%). Second, the number of gang-related homicides involving a firearm decreased, from 132 in 2023 to 110 in 2024. Together, these changes contributed to an increase in the overall proportion of gang-related homicides involving a firearm, from 78% in 2023 to 79% in 2024. The number of accused in gang-related homicides decreased from 121 to 95, resulting in a drop in the proportion of accused who were involved in gang-related homicides, from 18% in 2023 to 14% in 2024.

More youths charged with homicide

More youths under the age of 18 were charged with homicide in 2024 (72) than in 2023 (65). This pushed up the rate of youths accused of homicide from 0.87 to 0.94 per 100,000 youths. In 2024, police reported 13 incidents involving multiple youths accused of homicide, 5 of which had 3 or more youths accused.

Indigenous peoples continue to be overrepresented among homicide victims

Indigenous peoples in Canada—First Nations people, Métis and Inuit—continue to face a disproportionate risk of homicide, which is deeply rooted in the historical and present-day effects of colonization, including systemic discrimination, poverty and intergenerational trauma.

In 2024, Indigenous peoples made up 3 in 10 homicide victims (30%) while representing 5% of the overall population of Canada. The proportion of Indigenous homicide victims increased by 4 percentage points from 2023, when Indigenous peoples accounted for 26% of all homicide victims. With a homicide rate of 10.84 per 100,000 population in 2024, Indigenous peoples were victims of homicide at a rate over eight times higher than that of non-Indigenous Canadians. Among Indigenous homicide victims, increases were more pronounced for Indigenous women, with the number of homicides rising from 50 in 2023 to 71 in 2024. Homicides among Indigenous men increased from 144 to 152.

Nearly 3 in 10 homicide victims belong to a racialized group

In 2024, close to 3 in 10 homicide victims (29% or 226 victims) belonged to a racialized group. The homicide rate for racialized victims was 1.72 victims per 100,000 population, lower than the rate for non-racialized victims (1.98 per 100,000 population). Among racialized victims, the most affected groups were the Black (45%), South Asian (22%), and Arab (9%) populations.

Individuals accused of homicide often have prior criminal records

Crimes against a person are offences that involve or threaten bodily harm to a victim. This category is broad, including the most severe crimes like homicide (murder, manslaughter and infanticide), as well as sexual assault, attempted murder, robbery, criminal harassment, uttering threats and various levels of physical assault. In 2024, 42% of individuals accused of homicide had a record of either having committed or having been accused of previous crimes against a person, a rate slightly lower than in 2023 (47%).

From 2019 to 2024, roughly one-third of individuals accused of homicide were already under some form of justice system supervision. This proportion was 32% in 2024, after peaking at approximately 35% in 2023, following a low of 25% in 2021. This broad category of supervision includes not only those on bail, but also those on remand, sentenced to custody or on probation.

Missing persons as victims of homicide

In 2024, the reduction in overall homicides was mirrored by a decrease in cases where victims were previously reported missing.

Approximately 1 in 20 homicide victims (5% or 41 victims) had been reported missing at the time of their death in 2024, down slightly from 6% (44 victims) in 2023. For Indigenous homicide victims, where the gender was known, 4% of both Indigenous women and men were previously reported as missing compared with 5% of non-Indigenous women and 6% of non-Indigenous men. Despite the large increase in the number of Indigenous women who were homicide victims, the percentage of those who were previously reported as missing was 3.25 times lower in 2024 than the average calculated since these data were first collected in 2015 (13%).

Women continue to account for a disproportionate number of victims of intimate partner homicide

In 2024, almost one in six homicide victims (17%) were killed by a spouse or an intimate partner, totalling 100 victims. This is an increase from the 72 victims recorded in 2023. Increases were reported in 8 of the 10 provinces. Following a historical pattern, women (81%) were disproportionately the victims of intimate partner homicide in 2024, including homicide committed by a current or former spouse, common-law spouse or dating partner. More specifically, the number of women who were victims saw a sharp increase—from 53 in 2023 to 81 in 2024—while the number of men who were victims remained consistent.

1. A census metropolitan area (CMA) consists of one or more neighbouring municipalities situated around a major urban core. A CMA must have a total population of at least 100,000 of which 50,000 or more live in the urban core. To be included in the CMA, other adjacent municipalities must have a high degree of integration with the central urban area, as measured by commuting flows derived from census data. A CMA typically comprises more than one police service. It is important to note that while official police-reported data on crime from the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Survey use Statistics Canada's standard CMA names, the boundaries for the policing-based CMAs do not always fully align with the standard CMA geographic units used for disseminating information about the Census of Population.

Because of the relatively small population sizes in the territories, variations in year-over-year homicide rates need to be interpreted with caution. Therefore, the territories are included in the overall national rate but not displayed separately.

Court Security and Prisoner Transportation Program

TO:

The Chair and Members of the Waterloo Regional
Police Service Board

FROM:

Office of the Chief of Police

01/21/2026

Recommendation

If in agreement, the Police Service Board will send the attached correspondence to Deputy Minister Mario Di Tommaso at the Ministry of Solicitor General regarding enhanced and consistent funding for the provision of local court security.

In 2025, the Ministry of the Solicitor General reduced WRPS' allocation under the Court Security and Prisoner Transportation (CSPT) grant program while also recommending that court security be enhanced at the Region's Courthouses.

Report

Annually, the Government of Ontario provides funding through the CSPT program to police services. However, in 2025, WRPS' grant allocation was reduced by $598,809 to $4,730,405. This total funding is now covering only 46% of projected 2026 Court Security costs of $10,328,000.

Further, on August 6, 2025, an All-Chiefs of Police memo was issued from the Ministry of the Solicitor General regarding Court Security enhancements. The memo recommended enhanced court security measures to be adopted in all premises where court proceedings are conducted in response to recent events and growing concerns related to the safety of the public, court staff and members of the judiciary, including:

- A single entrance be established for members of the public accessing the courthouse, or any premise where court proceedings are conducted.
- Anyone attending the courthouse, or any premise where court proceedings are conducted, be actively screened using metal detectors or security wands.
- A security presence on every floor of a courthouse, or any premise where court proceedings are conducted, with armed officers readily available to respond, when necessary.

Overall, in-person volumes at the Region's Courthouses now exceed pre-pandemic levels. Recently, the Courthouse has experienced an increase in violent outbursts and escalated behaviour from accused persons and members of the public. In the 2026 Budget, the Police Service Board determined that an expansion of security personnel at the Courthouses were required. WRPS added two new sworn members, and five new special constables dedicated to Court Security.

The Police Service Board is now advocating to the Ministry of the Solicitor General for more sustainable CSPT funding levels and for better awareness from the Ministry of the growing pressures on police services to deliver the court security function. This includes advocating for base level funding for minimum operational capacity as well as incremental adjustments tied to court metrics, such as court volume. Please see Attachment 1 – Correspondence to Deputy Minister Di Tommaso.

WATERLOO REGIONAL POLICE SERVICE BOARD

January 22, 2026

Dear Deputy Minister Mario Di Tommaso,

On behalf of the members of the Waterloo Regional Police Service Board, I am writing to you regarding the level of provincial funding dedicated for court security in the Region of Waterloo. As you are aware, under the Community Safety and Policing Act (CSPA), the Waterloo Regional Police Service (WRPS) is responsible for providing court security to the Waterloo Region Courthouse (85 Frederick Street) as well as the Provincial Offences Court House (77 Queen Street North).

For 2025, WRPS' allocation of the provincial Court Security and Prisoner Transportation (CSPT) grant was reduced by close to $600,000. We understand that WRPS' reduction was the result of the collective expenditure-based funding model utilized for all police services.

The Police Service Board feels that this reduction is inconsistent with the recent provincial guidelines for court security as well as with operational realities. In-person court volume is now exceeding pre-pandemic levels coupled with the increase in violent incidents at courthouses in Waterloo Region.

Following the All-Chiefs Memo sent in August 2025, WRPS engaged directly with our local judiciary to understand local court security issues from their perspective. In the last four months alone, three bomb threats were made to the Courthouse, which proved to be unfounded. Further, in July 2025, two incidents of an accused breaking the glass in the prisoner's box occurred. One accused scaled the box and ran at the Justice before being subdued.

In the 2026 WRPS Budget, the Police Service Board added two new sworn members, and five new special constables dedicated solely to Court Security. This expansion along with cost-of-living increases and the CSPT decrease comes at an increased cost of $2 million annually.

Given that this fiscal pressure will continue in future years, the Police Service Board wishes to bring this matter to your attention. We fully appreciate the necessity of having robust court security but respectfully ask that you please re-examine WRPS' CSPT allocation level going forward.

Further, our Police Service Board is aligned with the below Ontario Association of Chief of Police (OACP) resolution from 2025 that calls for base level CSPT funding for minimum operational capacity for all jurisdictions as well as incremental adjustments tied to specific court metrics, including cases and special events.

On behalf of the Police Service Board, we appreciate your consideration to this matter.

Best,

Ian McLean
Chair, Waterloo Regional Police Service Board

2025 OACP Resolution – Court Security and Prisoner Transportation Program:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the OACP calls on the Government of Ontario to collaborate with municipal police services to develop and implement a funding model for the Court Security and Prisoner Transportation upload through a hybrid model where a base level of funding guarantees minimum operational capacity for all jurisdictions, with incremental funding adjustments tied directly to court cases, including volume and complexity of court security events, number and cumulative duration of prisoner transports, specialized security requirements and utilizes reporting mechanisms to ensure funding allocations reflect actual operational demands and cost structures.

2025 was a year of progress for the Region of Waterloo Community Safety and Wellbeing Plan. This report contains excerpts and information from the report delivered at the 2025 All Councils meeting and provides plan highlights from the priority action tables as well as key actions taken to solidify planned governance and accountability.

Report

The Region of Waterloo Community Safety and Wellbeing Plan and the agencies contributing towards its governance, administration and action tables demonstrated progress over the course of 2025. These priorities include Combatting Hate, Addressing Intimate Partner Violence, Gender-Based Violence, and Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls, Addressing Mental Health and Addiction Needs, Together, and Creating Safe and Inclusive Spaces.

Combatting Hate

The Combatting Hate Action Table (CHAT) identified three core priorities for action: Building system accountability to better respond to community needs to combat hate; mapping current programs, services and initiatives that address hate and/or offer supports to people who have experienced harm using trauma-informed and culturally safe approaches; and developing a community-wide public awareness campaign on hate and identity-based harm.

In 2025, the CHAT worked together to launch a community-wide anti-hate awareness campaign, We all belong here, aimed at addressing hate, harm and building a community where everyone feels safe, welcomed, respected and that they belong. The campaign features posters, social media posts, lawn signs, newspaper and radio ads, a wrapped Grand River Transit Bus and more. Campaign materials were translated in Arabic, Tigrinya, Spanish, Farsi, French, Turkish and the following Indigenous languages: Anishnaabe, Inuit, Mi'Kmaq, Mohawk, and Metis.

The WeBelongWR website was also co-created by the CHAT and launched alongside the campaign. The website is designed to provide support and resources accordingly from those who have experienced harm and are seeking support; to those who may have caused harm and are looking for opportunities to change; to those who want to be an ally.

The campaign launched on Oct 23, 2025, with approximately 100 community leaders and partners. Since the launch, over 15+ community activation events have been held across Waterloo Region to promote the campaign with community partners, residents and youth.

Intimate Partner Violence, Gender-Based Violence, and Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls

Work on this priority area has advanced through the partners of the Family Violence Project (FVP). Launched in 2006, the FVP is a collaboration of nine multi-sector co-located agencies working collectively to support victims, survivors, and families of GBV/IPV, while undertaking innovative initiatives to reduce family violence in Waterloo Region.

As a key initiative, the Early Intervention Program has provided consistent results in reducing IPV related calls for service to police post intervention. In Q1 2025, 48% of individuals participating in the EIP had no further IPV related calls six months after joining the program. This program was also featured to the Standing Committee on Justice Policy – Study on Intimate Partner Violence as a scalable model for best practice in the province.

In 2025 the action table also undertook work in three key areas:

- A focus on prevention
- Education and advocacy
- Design to meet community need

Through these categories of work the action table surveyed local GBV service providers to develop a landscape of services, funding streams, staffing and resource allocations. Based on the respondents, results indicated that in January 2025 a provider survey was distributed to IPV/GBV serving agencies which allowed for a broad analysis of program types, funding types and dedicated staffing. Key statistics from the survey respondents included:

- 48% of programs were funded by grants, and;
- 19% of programs were considered unfunded.
- The top three program types are education, counselling, connection.
- 36% of programs were categorized as 'social development', while 4% were classified as 'primary response'.

The action table partners also developed training and awareness for femicide reporting. Femicide was recently added to the proposed Protecting Victims Act legislation for consideration as an offence.

Additional action table highlights:

- Launch of the #NotInMyCity information and awareness campaign, to bring attention and education to disrupt the ongoing issue of human trafficking.
- The action table partners also developed training and awareness for femicide reporting.
- Data analysis examining shelter occupancy, program access, rates of victimization by census metropolitan area and frequency of recontact was developed to inform provider services.
- WLU/CSWP co-hosted a professional development day for the IPV/GBV/MMWIG2S+ and Combatting Hate action tables.

Addressing Mental Health & Addictions Needs, Together

The Mental Health and Addictions System Transformation Team, led by both Waterloo Region Ontario Health Teams, focuses on aligning MHA cross-sectoral work that is happening across Waterloo Region to prevent duplication, optimize resources and improve impact through integrated coordinated MHA care. The six mobilization teams are currently supporting the following:

- Frequent Users of Emergency Departments
- Homelessness and Housing
- Supporting People Holistically
- Youth Mental Health and Addictions Prevention
- The HART Hub Waterloo Region
- Data and Evaluation

Creating Safe and Inclusive Spaces

In 2025, a Safe and Inclusive Spaces Action Table was developed with representation from area municipalities, Indigenous organizations, and community organizations. The table aims to collaboratively develop and implement actions that foster safe and inclusive spaces for Indigenous Peoples and equity-deserving communities across Waterloo Region.

Governance and Administration

- The Region of Waterloo hired Samina Sami as its first Executive Director to lead the ongoing development of the plan.
- CSWP Government Relations made significant efforts in advocacy for resources under the four priorities of the plan. This included engagements at Rural Ontario Municipal Association and the Association of Municipalities of Ontario.
- The Core Support Team assisted with partners to support funding applications for many local initiatives including, Ontario STANDS, HART Hub, Federal Anti-Racism Program, Integrated Crisis Centre.

Plan Refresh

The Community Safety and Policing Act (2019) requires every municipality in Ontario to refresh their CSWP every four years in consultation with communities and to submit the updated plan to the Ministry of the Solicitor General. In 2022, the Region developed a CSWP framework and asset map in collaboration with communities across the region, and in alignment with the legislation. The Region is due to submit the updated CSWP by March 2026, in compliance with the four-year cycle mandated under the Act.
